

Lesson 179

suntan	[ˈsʌntæn]
get a (sun)tan
sunbathe	[ˈsʌnbetð]
sunshine	[ˈsʌnʃaɪn]
seaside	[ˈsiːsaɪd]
frequently	[ˈfriːkwəntli]

What do you get when you sunbathe in the sunshine?

When you sunbathe in the sunshine, you get a suntan.

Do you get a (sun)tan easily?

Yes, I get a (sun)tan easily.
or: No, I don't get a (sun)tan easily.

Where do people usually go when they want to sunbathe?

People usually go to the seaside when they want to sunbathe.

How frequently do you sunbathe at the seaside?

I sunbathe at the seaside once a year.

Can it be dangerous for your skin if you sunbathe too frequently?

Yes, it can be dangerous for your skin if you sunbathe too frequently.

spoil / spoilt / spoilt	[spɔɪl / spɔɪlt / spɔɪlt]
satisfaction	[sætɪsˈfækʃn]

Have you ever spoilt anyone's birthday party?

Yes, I've spoilt someone's birthday party.
or: No, I've never spoilt anyone's ...
I forgot to bring the birthday present.

How? What happened?

How can grandparents sometimes spoil their grandchildren?

Grandparents can sometimes spoil their grandchildren by giving them too many sweets and toys.

What can sometimes spoil a customer's satisfaction?

The fact that one could get a better price somewhere else can sometimes spoil a customer's satisfaction.

Reading: Lesson 174 Page 551