

Finding Transportation to Hotel

(Jun arrives in Hong Kong. He is a bit confuse of what transportation is going to be convenient for him)

Jun: Excuse me, Ms. I just arrived in H.K. Do you mind if I ask you something?

Girl: Sure, what do you want to know?

Jun: I'd like to know what is the better way to get to my Hotel?

Girl: Hmm, where are you heading?

Jun: I'm on my way to the Metro Park Hotel

Girl: Oh okay well, If you take the taxi it's going to take you about one hour to travel. And based from my experience, I think the fare is about HK $300.

Jun: Oh is that so? Where could I possibly find the taxi stand?

Girl: It's right over there in the parking lot.

Jun: Okay, but I wish to take the faster one, do you know any?

Girl: Well if you wish to save time, you can take the subway called MTR getting off at Admiralty station which is right below Metro Park Hotel. I think the fair is about HK$70. And it will take you just about 20 minutes or so.

Jun: Wow! That is very fast and convenient...

Girl: Actually, you can go me since I'm going to the subway station anyway.

Jun: Oh I'd like that thank you.

Girl: Oh, you mind if I ask what are doing exactly here for?

Jun: I'm here for a business purpose.

Girl: Oh good luck and I hope you'll have a pleasant stay here in Hong Kong.

Jun: Thank you!
