

Death Row Inmate Nominated For Nobel Prize

Multiple Choice

1. Why did Stanley Williams write anti-gang books?
  - a) He had nothing else to do
  - b) He wanted to prevent young people from getting into gangs.
  - c) He wanted to get rich.
  - d) He wanted a Noble Prize

2. Why was Williams nominated for a Nobel Prize?
  - a) for starting the Crips gang
  - b) for writing books
  - c) for living 20 years in a violent prison
  - d) the good work he has done to keep kids away from gangs

Your Turn

1. Do you think that Williams is doing a good thing by writing books to keep young people away from gangs? Why or why not?

2. Should a criminal be allowed to be a role model for young people? Why or why not?