

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:

* share the features they consider when choosing a restaurant to eat in.

Dialogue

A: Is this a clean restaurant?

B: Well, the tables and chairs look okay.

A: Okay, let's sit down.

B: Check out the silverware.

A: It passes inspection.

B: Here comes the waiter. See if his hands and nails are clean.

A: Well, the waiter looked clean, so I guess it's okay to eat here.

B: You're forgetting about the bathroom.

A: I'm going to examine it, just hope that it is clean.

B: You're not going to examine it before we order dinner?

A: No, I'd rather not find out that it's dirty, because I'm pretty hungry right now.

B: Me, too. Let's forget about germs and focus on food.

Let's Talk

1. How often do you eat in a restaurant?
2. How important is a place's cleanliness?
3. Do you make sure that the restaurant where you're eating is clean before ordering food? Support your answer.
4. What are the things that you look into a restaurant before entering?
5. Have you had an experience wherein you realized that the place where you're eating is not a clean one? Tell me about it.
6. Do you think the appearance of a restaurant affects the number of customers they get? Why do you think so?
7. What is the cleanest restaurant you've ever visited? Describe it.
